CAPITAL OVER 350,000 DOLLARS, AND CONSTANTLY INCREASING. The Charter of this Company offers more favora-ble advantages to the farmer and others, than any Company chartered in the State, by insuring with or without a premium note. If the applicant prefer, he can pay the full amount of the premium n cash, or by effecting a cash insurance for two years, the insured saves one-eighth of the amount e would otherwise have to pay; or by becoming a member, and giving a small premium note, the in Joseph Carson, M. D., Professor of Materia Me sured saves nearly one-half of the amount charged by Stock Companies, when insuring from year to year. This is the advantage resulting from the

CASH AND MUTUAL PRINCIPLE. This Company commenced issuing Policies against loss or damage by fire, on the 13th day of and Manday of October, and close on the 1st of March, 1854, since which time over seven thousand seven hundred persons have insured and become members of the Company, and over seventy thousand dollars have been paid for losses. Having increased our business during the past year, we feel grateful for the liberal patronage bestowed upon the Company thus far, and for its flattering pros-pects of future usefulness. The Directors hope and believe, that, by prudence, caution, and a rigid system of economy, they will establish for this Company a reputation for cheapness and safety not surpassed by any Company in the U. States. All differences in sottlement of losses, may be determined by three disinterested arbitrators of the County where such loss happened, to be mutually chosen by the insured and the Company.

MISCELLANEOUS BEADING.

Horace VERNET'S PICTURES .- Any one, of late years, who has walked by the miles of pictures at Versailles (and the walls of the palace are more thoroughly canvassed than ever a doubtful district was for an election,) must have noted particularly the sketches of Vernet, left to be finished by other artists, while he was yet in Algiers filling his portfolio with pencil-scenes for other pictures. In many cases these pictures cover the entire walls on one side of an immense saloon. Such Zouaves, such his pencil, brings out every muscle in relief as easily as the horse would do himself in drawing a mere charcoal cart. In battle scenes he has no living equal. The Emperor is fortunate in having such an artist to hand down his pictured immortality. (We suggest a subject for an appropriate picture: the Emperor clipping the imperial eagle's claws, and thus reducing him to a peacefooting.) Pictures in Paris, too, last longer than

FROM THE STAGE TO THE PULPIT .- The Nashville Advocate says: "At the Nashville Preachers' meeting, two weeks ago, the meeting following Dr. Parsons' dedicatory sermon and services, after the regular reports, Rev. P. Barth, the German missionary, gave a very interesting account of the death of his father, and of his own conviction, conversion, and call to the ministry .-He also stated that when Dr. Parsons was an actor, he-Barth- and two of his brothers were members of the orchestra that made music for Dr. P. Now they meet in quite a different sphere. Dr. Parsons is one of the stationed preachers in Louisville, he-Philip Barth-is missionary to the Germans in Nashville, one of the brothers is a presiing elder in Indiana, and the third a Meth-

In the wildest revolutions even, in the gene for they are looked upon as the property of odist class leader.' VERDANCY IN INDIANA .- An insurance agent in this city, a gentleman well and favorably known as a man of truth and veracity, tells the following, in illustration of the verdancy of a gentleman in Pike county, Ind., with whom he had effected a policy of Forty per cent of the premium loaned to the ininsurance: In the list of printed questions in the Company's blanks, there is one like this:"Ashes-how kept?" The Pike county gentleman was burned out, and after the fire discovered this question in his policy, and, resolved to make a sure thing in this wise: "Dear sir-I was burnt out on the -day of -, and according to your laws, I have kept the ashes. They are in barrels; what shall I do with them?"—Peoria Union.
